What's on my Mind... on my Heart... and in my Prayers!

The City Sing of Peace – and our growing Interfaith work, for such a time as this

In the spring of 2015, a group of leaders from the diversity of faith communities in Rochester gathered to get to know each other better. We are all so busy with our own ministries that it is easy not to know each other, or to only know of each other. Our timing was propitious as the threat of violence against our Muslim neighbors became very real at this time last year. As we gathered then at the Islamic Center on Westfall Road. I was conscious of the need to sign-in and that groups of members were walking the building to ensure safety for us. We looked for something we could do together to express our unity – Christians , Jews, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists Continue
