What's on my Mind... on my Heart... and in my Prayers!

It's still a scandal! .....

The crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth and the resurrection of Jesus the Christ, that is. Many of us have lived with it for so long that it has lost the power to shock us. But, as one of my colleagues used to say, "It's Hell Week!"

I was worshipping at one of our churches this month, where a high school aged young woman was questioning why anyone would want to worship a God who would allow his own son to suffer so, and then to be killed. I got the feeling that orthodox words about substitutionary atonement were not going to quell her questioning spirit. How would you answer her? .... Continue
