What's on my Mind... on my Heart... and in my Prayers!

Who needs anti-racism training? We all do!

The Co-Moderators of our General Assembly, the Rev. Denise Anderson and the Rev. Jan Edmiston, are encouraging anti-racism training throughout the church. Why? Because we all need to become conscious and aware of the racism that floats throughout the water we are swimming in. Sometimes it is hard to see what's in the water, especially if you have been swimming in the same pond for a long time. Jan and Denise have suggested reading a book together: Waking up White: And Discovering Myself in the Story of Race, by Debby Irving. A number of our churches, and the Riverside Neighborhood, have studied the book this year. I commend it to you as a first step.

As a second step, also at a basic level, a few persons
